Day	Full Itinerary - Itinerary is a guide only & some alterations may occur.	Inclusive Highlights (Indicated as red text)
1-2	Leaving Nairobi we head for the Nakuru region on the Great Rift Valley. We spend the first two nights on a large working farm not far from the small town of Nakuru and close to the Nakuru National Park. Next morning we explore the Nakuru National Park, giving you a very good chance of seeing leopard and rhino. [▲] [X - BLD]	Nakuru National Park all day game drive.
3-4	Crossing the border into Tanzania we camp near or on the shores of Lake Victoria. We make our way to the Serengeti National Park, where we stay one night and go for afternoon and morning game drives. [▲] [X - BLD]	Lake Victoria. Serengeti National Park
5	Leaving the Serengeti around noon, we drive up the escarpment to the lush vegetation of the Ngorongoro Crater, spending the night on the outskirts of a town near the crater rim. [▲] [X - BLD]	Journey to Karatu near Ngorongoro Crater.
6-7	Next day we do a game drive in 4x4 vehicles into the crater itself, returning to our campsite in the mid-afternoon. Next morning we have a relaxing start after all our early mornings and head into Arusha to visit the local ebony market, stopping to visit a local Maasi village along the way before heading off to camp the night in the foothills of Kilimanjaro. [▲] [X - BLD]	Ngorongoro Crater 4x4 safari. Maasai Village and Kilimanjaro
8	The following day is a long drive to Dar-es-Salaam, passing through many African villages. That night we camp on a beach on the outskirts of Dar. [▲] [X - BLD]	Travel to Dar-es-Salaam.
9-12	Thereafter you have 4 nights (5 days) to explore the island of Zanzibar at your leisure. Take in the sights, sounds and intricate winding streets of Stone Town and its people, join a spice tour, swim with Dolphins at the southern tip of the island or just soak up the sun. [☒] [X - Own expense while on island]	Return Zanzibar ferry. Activities own expenses
13	Returning to the mainland we camp in Dar that night before setting out for the Tanzanian Highlands. [▲] [X - BLD]
14-16	The drive to Malawi takes us through interesting landscapes. We spend several days driving through the highlands of Tanzania before descending into the basin of Lake Malawi. We stop off for a night in the Baobab Valley Conservation Area camping on the edge of the Great Ruaha River where a number of walks can be taken directly from the camp. Moving further south our next night we stop at a quaint farmhouse in the Tanzania highlands before moving on next morning to visit a local tea plantation. [▲] [X - BLD]	Tanzanian highlands - Guided walks Tea Plantation tour.
17-19	Descending and crossing the border into Malawi we travel down the lake spending the next 3 nights on the lakeshore for some R & R or you can take a dive in Lake Malawi, canoe out to Kande Island or horse ride in the forests above the lake ending with a swim in the lake with your horse. [▲] [X - BLD]	Lake Malawi. Activities own expense.
20	Today we head south to the town of Lilongwe, where you will have the opportunity to do some curio shopping. Crew stock up with supplies. [▲] [X - BLD]	Lilongwe.
21-23	A short drive takes us to South Luangwa National Park. This is one of the best national parks in Africa and leopard sightings are quite common. Here we take a morning and evening game drive in the park plus with the added extra day you can do your own optional drives/walks while camping on the banks of the Luangwa River. [▲] [X - BLD]	South Luangwa National Park game drives. Optional extra day at South Luangwa - extra own activities. Drive through Zambia.
24-25	Leaving this beautiful valley behind us we drive through the interior of Zambia spending the night on the Luangwa River once again. Continuing our drive we pass through the capital of Zambia, Lusaka and onto Livingstone, arriving in the afternoon. [▲] [X - BLD]
26-27	Arriving at Victoria Falls you have the opportunity to do any number of the adrenaline activities on offer in your own time. We suggest that you spend a few extra days in the area at the end of your tour with us. On your last day with us we take you to view the spectacular Victoria Falls and end the tour with a sunset cruise on the Zambezi. [▲] [X - BLD]	Zambezi Sunset cruise.
